

W. S. SLOUGH For Assessor

To the Voters of Klamath County:
If I am placed in the office of assessor or by your votes I pledge myself to the following standards and ideals:

1—I shall give all my time and the best of my ability to the work of the office.

2—I shall do my best to place upon the tax roll every piece of taxable property in Klamath county, and will assess each piece equitably.

3—The "timber baron" and "small taxpayer" will look alike to me. I stand for a square deal for all.

4—I will not use the office to reward friends or punish enemies.

5—I will not use the opportunities afforded by the office to promulgate any "ideas" or "isms." There is work enough in the office to consume all the time and energy of the most active man.

6—The peace and prosperity of the county depend upon a just and intelligent administration of public business.

7—Your support in the Primary and in the Election is solicited upon the above declaration of principles.

Respectfully, W. S. SLOUGH.

ON OFFENSIVE CAMPAIGN

A FEELING of disgust and resentment is sweeping over Klamath county as a result of the campaign of vilification being conducted by C. M. Onell and John Irwin, in their vain hope that they can secure votes by besmirching the character of honest men.

The time when a candidate for political favor could "get by" with an attempt to distract attention from his own lack of ability and qualifications, by a campaign of mud slinging against his opponent, has long since past. Today a man must win on his fitness, his honesty and his ability. If he lacks these qualifications, all the howl he may put up about "political rings," and "combinations" will avail him nothing.

That old "gag" of the politician of long ago in his attempt to appeal to prejudice by proclaiming that he was the original "friend of the farmer," and the "friend of the laboring man," and how in his early career he had labored and toiled and was in sympathy with you men who "live by the sweat of your brow," has been thrown into the discard along with the muck raking and mud slinging campaigns. It was used more than forty years ago, and only causes contempt in the minds of intelligent people of today.

Ability, honesty, fairness, dignity and impartiality, are the requisites of a man capable of filling the office of circuit judge. Mr. Onell has conclusively shown during his campaign that he is utterly lacking in every one of these qualifications, and in addition he is daily proving to the people of the county that he is devoid of common decency.

During Mr. Irwin's term of nearly four years he has served under three circuit judges, and there have been five separate newspapers during that time. He charges that all of these judges and newspapers were against him, as well as the sheriff's office, justice courts, and practically all other officers. Whether this is true or not, it occurs to the people that it is barely possible that John might have been wrong. He promises that if the Onell-Irwin combination is elected to office, that they will do things. No one seems to doubt this for a moment.

From every section of the county come reports of the sudden activity of otherwise disinterested voters, who, aroused and disgusted with the vile campaign of abuse, are showing their resentment by aligning themselves with the friends of Judge Kuykendall. Dozens of letters daily are being received by Judge Kuykendall from voters in all parts of the county, assuring him of their friendship and support. Many of these are from former jurymen, who know Irwin, and as there were several hundred of these during Irwin's term, their influence will have a big effect on the election.

Irwin realizes too late his mistake in accusing the jurymen of violating their oaths and being influenced by the court and by the Herald and other parties, which he claimed were antagonistic to him. These jurymen are all taxpayers and permanent residents of the county, and are among the most respected and influential citizens. They know, after spending from ten to thirty days listening to Irwin conduct a case, why he always failed. They do not intend to give him a chance to fail again.

Scattered Shots

AFTER SOME watchful waiting, perhaps we'll get a best sugar factory after all.

IT IS STATED that a certain candidate's entry into the law was due to a dream, in which he saw the letters "F. L." These he interpreted as meaning "Practice Law"—but his record indicates they must have meant "Flour Land."

AND BEFORE the ink was dry on the last note written to "settle" the submarine controversy—"Bingo" goes another torpedo into the innards of a passenger vessel.

SO FAR, we've heard none of the school kids bemoaning the fact that the term will soon be over.

MILLIONS OF CANS OF IRISH STEW START FOR TRENCHES

United Press Service
PHILADELPHIA, May 10.—Delivery was made today of the first twelve million cans of the order for six hundred million one-pound tins of Irish stew for the armies of Great Britain and its allies.

Of the contracts placed in the United States, Philadelphia got a large part, as 125,000,000 cans have been ordered here. Three big canneries combined to fill the order.

Twelve million cans a week are to be shipped until the entire order is filled. Montreal, St. Johns and Halifax are to be the shipping points. Most of the order, it is understood, is destined for France and Russia.

American companies sharing in the order include Libby, McNeill & Libby, Leggett & Co., New York; Campbell Soup Co., Camden; Franco-American Soup Co., Swift & Co., Cudahy & Co., and Armour & Co.

Another Demand on Britain
Secretary Lansing announces that the United States has sent another note to Great Britain demanding the release of the thirty-eight Austrians, Germans and Turks taken from the American steamship China by a British cruiser off Shanghai. Great Britain contends that the men were engaged in intrigues and plots against the British government, and having been discovered were fleeing to Manila where they intended to continue their efforts, which would have embarrassed the neutrality of the United States.

An Amsterdam dispatch says the largest casualty list published in Germany increases to 2,518,264 the total of Prussian losses during the war. This total includes killed, wounded and missing. It does not include the losses of the Saxon, Bavarian or the Wuertemberg armies.

CANDIDATES NOTICE
Any candidate of any political party is cordially extended the privilege of addressing the people from the platform where I speak in this campaign.

Lived to Be Over 100 Years of Age

Abraham Wilcox

Abraham Wilcox, who has just died in Fort Worth, declared that he was 115 years old. His sons and daughters say he was 107. Until his last illness he walked two miles every day, and never failed to read the daily newspapers. He came to the United States at the age of 30, and worked on a farm near Rochester, N. Y. Later he owned a farm in Michigan. He spent many years at San Luis Potosi, but could not stand the revolutions, and he went to Fort Worth.

For County Assessor

78 X Fred Peterson

It might be a good plan to have an assessor that the big speculators fear, one who in performing his duties would not lose sight of the interests of the producers, those who are making Klamath County.

Weight Can Be Reduced Now Without Rigid Diet

Flesh reducing by machinery, a new scientific treatment for obesity without necessity for starvation or rigid dieting, or tireome exercises is the latest treatment to be introduced to Klamath Falls. The new apparatus is just being installed in the White Pelican Hammam Baths by Dr. C. E. Wheeler, who has taken over the baths.

This new method of treating obesity while the patient reclines in an easy chair or lies on a couch, while the whole or a part of the muscular system is exercised to the extent of oxidizing the redundant fat tissue, originated in the mind of Dr. Bergonie of Paris, and is now being used in this country with astounding results. There are six of these machines in use on this side of the Atlantic. Dr. Wheeler of this city has been fortunate enough to secure the last one of the six. He states that a trained nurse will be installed especially to give these treatments, under his direction.

Doctors Bergonie, Nagelschmidt and Veith, who were the originators of this logic cure for obesity, and who have watched the results from the start, all report efficient fat reduction without observing any special diet. In typical cases after three sessions there was a loss of weight of a little over three pounds and a reduction of girth measurement of three inches. Dr. Wheeler reports a case that lost four pounds in three treatments, but states that the average is about one pound a day.

The ergotherapy treatment bids fair to become quite popular among the stout who would become the counterpart of the Greek athlete or the "perfect 36." What would be more pleasant than to take an afternoon nap in the treatment chair while any part of the body is being reduced to normal while the balance of the body is unaffected.

This treatment will probably do away with the old method of walking around golf links or going through the physical torture of the gymnasium, strict diet, injurious drug treatment, etc., and then with only uncertain results.

The machine is in operation at the White Pelican hotel, and any one is interested may see this invention.

Dr. Wheeler will be in charge, and will also continue his regular work at his office on Main and Seventh streets.

Delegates from Arkansas to the republican national convention in Chicago will go uninstructed, and for the first time in thirty-two years there will be no negro delegates at large among the number.

One of the French machine guns at Verdun is stated to have fired 75,000 shots from February 25 to March 4.
